

Integrating income sources in peasant economies: Evidence and research questions from Slovenia, Italy and Japan

International workshop

University of Primorska, Faculty of Humanities, Koper, February 26, 2016

Research project Integrated peasant economy in Slovenia in a comparative perspective (ARRS)

Inštitut za medkulturne študije UP FHŠ

VABLJENI PREDAVATELJI IN ŠTUDENTJE!

Program

10.00–10.30

- Welcome and introduction – The concept of “integrated peasant economy”

10.30–12.00

- Matjaž Bizjak (Slovenian Academy Research Center), Integrated peasant economy in medieval Slovenia
- Aleksander Panjek (Primorska University), Quantifying the peasant economy: the customary real-estate market in Slovenia (Karst, 17th c.)
- Alessio Fornasin, Claudio Lorenzini (Udine University), Integrated peasant economy in Friuli (17th – 19th c.)
- Discussion, break

12.00–13.30

- Renato Sansa (Calabria University), Woodlands as a source of income-integration in peasant economies: the Pontifical State (18th – 19th c.)
- Luca Mocarelli, Paolo Tedeschi (Bicocca University), Economy and pluriactivity in the Lombard Alpine valleys (end 18th – early 20th c.)
- Satoshi Murayama, Hiroko Nakamura, Takaaki Aoki (Kagawa University), Noboru Higashi (Kyoto Prefectural University), Disaster management and integrated economy in Japan: Amakusa in the 19th century
- Discussion, break

13.30–15.00: Lunch-break

15.00–16.30

- Aleksej Kalc, Nataša Kolega (Primorska University), Aspects and issues of the demographic development in Western Slovenia
- Žarko Lazarević (Contemporary History Institute, Ljubljana), Peasant economy in interwar Slovenia – politics of income diversification
- Štefan Bojnec (Primorska University), Pluriactivity, part-time farming, farm diversification, integrated and inclusive rural household development in contemporary economics
- Discussion, break

16.30–17.00

- Open questions – Closing discussion