

EJEA International Conference 2022
Multidisciplinary approaches toward SDGs related to environmental humanities (Friday, November 25 18:40-20:40)

	Time(JST)*	Title	Presenter
1	18:40-18:50	Impact of Climate Change on Haol (Seasonal Lake) in Northeastern Bangladesh and Adaptation Measure	Toru Terao, Kagawa University
2	18:50-19:00	In-Polder Water Management: A Transformational Measures for Adapting to Climate Change in Coastal Bangladesh	Robin K. Biswas, Bangladesh Water Development Board
3	19:00-19:10	River Runoff Simulation Using Past Precipitation Data and Its Issues: A Study on the Yura River in northern Kyoto Prefecture	Masahide ISHIZUKA, Kagawa University
4	19:10-19:20	Green Infrastructure for Flood and Bank Erosion Vulnerability Areas in Improving Society Resilience	Subashisa Dutta Indian Institute of Technology
5	19:20-19:30	"Challenges of The Environmental Victims of The World's Largest Rohingya Refugee Camps of Ukhiya, Cox's Bazar, Bangladesh & SDG Based Sustainable Geological Engineering Solutions for the Refugees & Local Communities"	Hossain, A.T.M.S, Jahangirnagar University
6	19:30-19:40	Reviving water resilient communities: An approach towards achieving SDGs in Meghalaya	H. J. Syiemlieh, North Eastern Hill University
	19:40-19:45	break
7	19:45-19:55	Environmental Cleanup activities at Seto Inland Sea	Lrong Lim, Kagawa University
8	19:55-20:05	Chiang Mai University, Innovation, and Action for Sustainable Development	Pornchai Wisuttisak, Chiang Mai University
9	20:05-20:15	Depopulation, Aging and Sustainable Tourism in Shikoku Region, Japan	Naoyuki Hara, Kagawa University
10	20:15-20:25	Environmental Education with Technology Enhanced Learning: Constructing a Spherical Video based Virtual Reality Teaching	Chao Yang Cheng, National Chiayi University
11	20:25-20:35	Being vs. Doing, Changed vs. Change: Initial Thinking toward Humanity Innovation and Social Practice	Sy-Chyi Wang, National Chiayi University

*Including 3 min Q&A